Wardhini symbolizes inner strength and resilience of women of Wardha in the present times of agrarian crisis in Vidarbha. We, women of Wardha have organized ourselves in self help group in an endeavour to raise ourselves out of the vicious circle of poverty. Hands that knew only to work in the farms are now weaving dreams in materials ranging from khadi to clay. Following the dream of Bapu we have set ourselves on to the path of rural industrialization and revival of cottage industry. In this era of globalization we strive to make our product and stand out and create a niche for ourselves.

We bring to you a range of product that combine contemporary aesthetic sense with traditional sentiments. Our products include scented candles, an array of articles made of handmade paper, terracotta tiles and jewellery, bags made of khadi and jute.

Our beautiful saree boxes made of embellished paper gives a new meaning to gifting.

Our exquisite terracotta jewellery adds charms to the beauty of a lady.

Our bags with unique mix of khadi and jute gives a chic look to every shoulder that carries it.

Buy Wardhini and Contribute in realization of our dreams.
